

.EDU.AU DOMAIN: TRANSFER OF REGISTRANT FORM

Instructions

- This form is to be completed to request transfer of a domain name licence from one registrant to a proposed new registrant, which has the effect of changing the name of the registrant as listed in the registry database
- The first page of the form must be completed by an authorised representative of the current registrant and printed on letterhead or accompanied by photo id of the representative.
- The second page of the form must be completed by an authorised representative of the proposed new registrant and printed on letterhead or accompanied by photo id of the representative.
- Documentation supporting the circumstances of transfer must be provided. (i.e. copy of the deed of settlement)
- Please send the completed pages to Education Services Australia via email to registrar@esa.edu.au.
- Upon receipt, your request will be raised for review and processed. Notification of whether the request has been approved or rejected will then be sent to the email addresses provided.

Please Note

This form only needs to be completed where the legal entity listed as the registrant is changing.
(to correct or update the details for the current registrant, please see section 3 of the .edu.au registration policy)

When approved the transfer process will result in the proposed registrant being issued a new 2 year licence for the domain name from the date of transfer and incurs the standard registration fee.

Approval of the transfer is subject to the proposed new registrant meeting both the eligibility and allocation criteria under schedules 1 and 2 of the .edu.au registration policy.

Sale of .edu.au domain names is prohibited as per the mandatory terms and conditions. It is only possible to transfer a .edu.au domain name under the following circumstances:

1. the domain name is used within the operations of the registrant and either the registrant or the operations are acquired by, merged into, devolved to or joined with the operations of the proposed new registrant; or
2. the registrant, being a legal entity, is dissolved, liquidated, enters into administration or is wound up with the consequence of the registrant's licence passing to the proposed new registrant by operation of law; or
3. the registrant, being a natural person, dies, becomes insane or enters into a deed of family settlement with consequence of the registrant's licence passing to the proposed new registrant by operation of law; or
4. the registrant is required to relinquish the licence to the proposed new registrant by order of a competent arbitrator, tribunal, court or legislative body; or
5. the registrant has entered into an agreement to transfer the licence to the proposed new registrant in settlement of a dispute between the parties, as evidenced by a deed of settlement.

Education Services Australia is required to reject transfer requests made for any reason other than the above.

The transfer policy can be viewed in full at www.domainname.edu.au/pdf/transfers.pdf

The eligibility and allocation criteria can be viewed in full at <http://www.domainname.edu.au/pdf/registration.pdf>
