

.EDU.AU DOMAIN: WARRANTY TO ESTABLISH ELIGIBILITY

Instructions

- The following form is to be completed to establish eligibility where there is no relevant government education or training authority as per Schedule A, Sections 2.6 and 2.7 of the .au Domain Administration Rules: Licensing.
- The “warranty by the applicant” section of this form is to be completed by an authorised representative of the applicant and printed on the letterhead of the applicant or accompanied by photo id of the representative.
- The “warranty by the referee” section of this form is to be completed by one of the referees nominated by the applicant and printed on the letterhead of the referee’s organisation or accompanied by photo id of the referee.
- The referees must be authorised representatives of current .edu.au domain licence-holders.
(this includes domains registered using .edu.au or .edu.au child zones – e.g. .edu.au, .nsw.edu.au, .vic.edu.au)
- The referees must be from two different entities that are not related entities to the applicant (related entity as defined by the Corporations Act 2001 – e.g. not a parent company or subsidiary, employer or employee)
- Please send the completed pages to Education Services Australia via email to registrar@esa.edu.au.
- Upon receipt, your application(s) will be raised for review and processed. Notification of whether the application has been approved or rejected will then be sent to the email address provided as the account contact.

Please Note

The registrant or account holder for a referee's domain may be contacted to confirm they are an authorised representative.

Declaration of primary function relates to the applying entity directly and as a whole, not that of a project or program belonging to the applicant or the intended purpose, content or services to be made available on the proposed domain name(s).

Providing general services to entities within the education and training sector does not qualify as “related services” as referred to in the declaration. Entities primarily providing such services are not eligible, including but not limited to:

- stationary, uniform, book or other supply services
- information technology, software or website development services
- marketing, referral, administration or financial services

Representing a group within a single State or Territory jurisdiction at a national level, a single State or Territory based entity being a member of a national body or association, and international delivery of education or training services are not considered to be national interests and responsibilities.

In addition to completing this form, the proposed domain name(s) must also meet the allocation criteria outlined in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 of Schedule A of the .au Licensing Rules in order to be approved.

All domain name licences are issued subject to the terms and conditions under the edu.au Registrant Agreement, the published policies and licensing rules. Non-compliance or where found to be in breach of this warranty may result in the cancellation of a domain name licence. See www.domainname.edu.au/policy.htm for full details.

Terminology
